

Board of Directors Bylaws

Board of Directors Bylaws (as amended on March 21, 2017)

The members of the Board of Directors of Accor (hereinafter the Company) abide by the following rules of procedure, which constitute the Bylaws of the Board of Directors.

These Bylaws are based on recommendations aimed at ensuring compliance with the fundamental principles of corporate governance, notably the AFEP/MEDEF Corporate Governance Code for listed companies.

Intended for internal use only, these Bylaws are designed to supplement the Company Bylaws by specifying the Board of Directors' organizational and operating procedures. They may not be used by shareholders or third parties as a basis for any claims against the directors, the Company or any company of the AccorHotels Group (hereinafter the Group). They apply, where appropriate, to the non-voting directors appointed by the Board of Directors as well as to the Founding Co-Chairmen designated in Article 21 of the Company's Bylaws.

These Bylaws shall be disclosed to the shareholders and to the public.

1. Composition

At least half of the directors on the Board of Directors must be independent within the meaning of the criteria set forth in the AFEP-MEDEF Corporate Governance Code for listed companies.

Every year, the Board of Directors shall determine which of the directors are independent according to the above-mentioned criteria. The conclusions of said assessment shall be disclosed to the shareholders and to the public in the Annual Report.

2. Meetings

The Board of Directors shall hold at least six meetings per year, of which one dedicated to reviewing the budget and one dedicated to a strategic review of the Group's operations. The proposed dates of each year's meetings shall be sent to the directors no later than March 31 of the previous year. Notices of Meeting shall be sent by mail, e-mail or fax, or given verbally, by the Board Secretary.

The draft minutes of each meeting shall be sent to the directors within 15 days after said meeting and submitted to the Board for approval at the meeting following the next meeting.

Part of at least one meeting a year shall be devoted to assessing the Board's efficiency and effectiveness, in order to identify possible areas for improvement. In addition, the Board of Directors shall conduct a formal self-assessment at least every three years.

Non-executive directors shall meet once a year, without the executive directors or corporate officers being present, to assess the latter's performance and consider the future management structure.

For the purpose of calculating the quorum and majority, directors who take part in meetings by any means making it possible to identify them and enabling their actual participation pursuant to current statutes and regulations shall be deemed to be in attendance.

3. Information for the Board of Directors

The directors shall be provided with all the information necessary for them to carry out their duties.

Except when compliance with confidentiality or physical obstacles make it impossible, an information package pertaining to the items on the agenda that require prior study shall be sent to the directors in a timely manner prior to the meetings.

Board of Directors Bylaws

In addition, the directors shall be kept periodically informed between meetings of all significant events and transactions in the life of the Group. To this end, they shall be provided with all the press releases issued by the Company and a periodic summary of financial analysts' research reports on the Group and, when necessary, the actual reports.

The Board shall be regularly informed of and shall periodically discuss the Group's financial position, cash position and commitments as well as its strategy and main policies in the areas of human resources, organization and information systems.

The directors shall be entitled to require the provision of any document necessary for the proceedings of the Board that has not been submitted to them. Any such requests shall be sent to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer who may submit it to the Board for a decision.

The directors shall have the right to meet with the Group's main executives, including without the presence of the executive directors. To do so, they must first file a request with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

4. Powers of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors deals with all matters falling within the powers vested in it under the applicable laws and regulations.

In addition, the Board of Directors shall:

 - any and all direct investments, for example for the creation of a business, the construction, refurbishment or extension of a hotel property, or expenditure on technological developments,
 - rental investments, measured on the basis of the market value of the leased asset,

 - any and all loans to entities in which the Company or one of its subsidiaries does not hold the majority of the shares and voting rights, and any and all commitments to participate in share issues by such entities.

In the case of financing transactions, however, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer is authorized to make any and all financial commitments of up to €1 billion without obtaining prior approval from the Board of Directors, provided that such commitment is undertaken in accordance with the annual Group financing policy as approved in advance by the Board of Directors. In this case, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer shall inform the Board of Directors of the transactions after they have been completed. It is noted as well that the Board's prior approval is not required for borrowings due in less than one year, whatever the amount borrowed.

In accordance with Article 14 of the Company's Bylaws, the Board of Directors may appoint one of its independent members to act as Vice-Chairman for the duration of his or her term as director. The appointment may be terminated at any time by decision of the Board of Directors.

In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, the Vice-Chairman may call meetings of the Board of Directors if the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer is unable to do so, and shall chair Board meetings in the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer's absence.

The Vice-Chairman shall act as the preferred contact for the other independent directors. Whenever necessary and at least once a year, he or she shall organize and lead a meeting reserved exclusively for independent directors to allow them to discuss certain issues outside full Board meetings.

The Vice-Chairman shall ensure that requests from shareholders not represented on the Board are answered, and shall make him or herself available to hear their comments and suggestions and, where necessary, answer their questions. A specific e-mail address shall be created for this purpose. The Vice-Chairman shall inform the Board of Directors about such contact with the shareholders.

In addition, the Vice-Chairman shall oversee formal assessments of the Board of Directors' practices, approve the list of strategic issues to be discussed at Board meetings, as prepared each year by the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and deal with any conflicts of interest affecting Board members under the procedure for managing conflict of interest situations as described in Article 9.

Chief Executive Officer. They shall report regularly to the Board on their work, and provide the Board with their observations, opinions, proposals or recommendations.

To assist them in their work, the Board Committees may commission technical reports from management or from external consultants, at the Company's expense. In both cases, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer shall be notified in advance. The Committees may also arrange meetings with members of Company management responsible for the areas under review, without any executive directors being present. In this case also, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer shall be informed in advance.

There are five standing Board Committees:

However, he shall not attend the part of Appointments and Compensation Committee meetings during which agenda items concerning him personally are discussed, nor the part of Audit and Risks Committee meetings during which the Committee members discuss matters with the Statutory Auditors.

The Committee Chairman shall appoint a person who need not be a Committee member to act as secretary.

The Chairman of each Committee may ask for the Committee to be consulted on any matters falling within its terms of reference that have not been referred to it.

Its activities in the three areas covered by its remit are as follows:

Governance

- it is tasked, in liaison with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, with issuing recommendations on implementing best corporate governance practices and preparing the assessment of the Board's work;

8. Directors' fees

The annual amount of directors' fees approved by shareholders shall be allocated by the Board based on a recommendation by the Compensation, Appointments and Corporate Governance Committee.

Board members shall be entitled to a fixed portion of fees for their duties as directors and, as the case may be, their role as a member or Chairman of one or more Board Committees, as well as a variable portion of fees determined according to their actual attendance at Board and Committee meetings.

Distribution is based on the following principles:

Board of Directors Bylaws

9. Conflicts of interest and sensitive information

9.1. Situations giving rise to conflicts of interest

Any director that is directly or indirectly, through a third party or otherwise, exposed to an actual or potential conflict between his/her interests and those of the Company because of the positions that he/she holds and/or any interests that he/she has elsewhere, shall inform the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Board Secretary.

As well as giving rise to a conflict of interests, direct or indirect ties to an entity whose interests compete with those of the Company may also lead to a breach of competition rules. Consequently, while they are members of the Company's Board, directors shall not accept any directorship, management position or consulting engagement with an entity whose interests compete with those of the Company without the Board's prior authorization.

Pursuant to Article 15 of the Company's Bylaws, directors and any other persons who attend Board meetings shall be required to treat all information provided during these meetings as strictly confidential.

9.2. Sensitive information as defined in competition law

No sensitive information, as defined in competition law, may be disclosed or discussed in the presence of any director who has direct or indirect ties to an entity whose interests compete with those of the Company (a "Concerned Director")

The definition of sensitive information in competition law covers all information not in the public domain that could enable the Concerned Director to understand or influence the Company's commercial and other strategies in markets served by the entity whose interests compete with those of the Company and with which the Concerned Director has ties.

It notably includes information concerning, for the market or markets in question:

- current or future business development projects, particularly planned mergers and acquisitions;
- current or future prices or pricing strategies (including discount and rebate plans);

Board of Directors Bylaws

- sales, promotional offers, terms and conditions of current or future promotional and advertising campaigns (including promotional or advertising expenditure, terms and conditions of sale and general sales strategies);
- margins and profitability objectives or indicators for specific businesses, products or services;
- current or future capacity, including planned capacity extensions or reductions;
- customers, customer lists, loyalty programs and contract bids or proposed bids;
- product, service or technology costs;
- technology, IT or research and development projects;
- market shares;
- market analyses, covering inter alia forecast changes in offer and/or demand and prices, in each case unless the information no longer qualifies as sensitive under competition law due to its general nature, or because it is too old or too aggregated, or because it consists solely of information in the public domain.

The risk of an exchange of sensitive information as defined in competition law is equivalent in all respects to a conflict of interest within the meaning of this article.

9.3. Reporting conflicts of interest

When a director takes office and by January 31 of each year thereafter, he or she shall prepare a statement setting out his or her direct ties or indirect ties through a third party or otherwise – whatever their form – with Group companies, their management or their competitors, customers, partners or suppliers. He/she shall submit this statement to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Vice Chairman, with a copy given to the Board Secretary.

If any event occurs that affects the accuracy of all or part of the statement, or if any questions arise as to the existence of an actual or potential conflict of interests, the director shall notify the Vice Chairman and the Board Secretary without delay.

The Vice Chairman, assisted by the Board Secretary and, if necessary, by outside consultants, shall prepare a list, director by director, of the issues likely to give rise to a conflict of interest. The Vice Chairman shall inform the Board of Directors of these issues each year and following each modification, and shall remind the Board of the measures adopted to prevent any risk of a conflict of interest.

9.4. Guidelines for dealing with conflicts of interest

In the event of an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Concerned Director shall not take part in the discussion of the matter concerned or the related vote and shall be asked to step out from the meeting while the discussion and vote take place.

He/she shall not receive the information prepared for Board members on the agenda item giving rise to the conflict of interest or the corresponding section of the minutes of the Board meeting.

If necessary due to the agenda of a given Board or Committee meeting, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer or the Vice Chairman may decide to organize the meeting in two parts, with the first part attended by the Concerned Director(s) and dealing with the agenda items not involving disclosure of any sensitive information as defined in competition law or giving rise to any conflicts of interest, and the second held without the Concerned Directors being present.

Decisions by the Board of Directors concerning a conflict of interest shall be recorded in the minutes of the relevant Board meeting.

Any problems concerning application of this Article 9 shall be submitted to the Vice Chairman of the Board or, at the latter's request if difficulties arise and with its presence, to the Corporate Governance, Compliance and CSR Committee. If the problem cannot be resolved by this process, the Board of Directors shall make a decision based on the committee's recommendation.
