Accorhotels.com Launches new Facebook Services

To make it easier to plan a trip, the Accorhotels.com Facebook page offers useful links, travel solutions and suggested activities for a particular destination on a given date.

Unlike other hotel pages, Accorhotels.com's Facebook page features a unique booking engine. It also focuses on destination-specific content, allowing members to find out the latest news and developments related to an Accor hotel worldwide, such as tourist activities, seasonal events, exhibitions, concerts, shows, popular restaurants and monuments.

Via links to mini Accorhotels.com websites for major European city destinations, fans can access advice and tips, as well as a travel guide recommending must-see attractions, suggested things to do in a city at a particular period and photos by destination.

The destination-specific content is also available via the accorhotels.com Twitter account.
