Antoine Recher is appointed Global Chief Human Resources Officer

Antoine Recher spent most of his career with Air France.

His most recent position was Executive Vice President, Human Resources and Social Policy for SERVAIR, France's airline catering services leader.

From 2000 to 2008, he was International Human Resources Director for Air France where he notably directed the merger of the Air France and KLM teams in some one hundred countries.

His knowledge of operations in the Services sector and in an international setting will be of valuable assistance in transforming our organization and accompanying the changes.

He will take up his position during the month October and replaces Anne-Marie Cambourieu who recently left the group.

Antoine Recher is 50 years old, a graduate of IEP Paris and holds a degree in law.
